SONG SPARROWS.
Differ in Color of Plumage, But Sing Same Notes.
It is an easy matter to become acquainted with song sparrows, says Country Life in America. They live everywhere in our country except in the most arid desert lands and in the southern row of states, and are to be found all through the year except in the very most northern states. As is usual with so broadly diffused a species, there are several distinct geographical races, most of them grading into each other as the characters of their habitats change. Thus, in the deserts of Utah and Arizona we find a form very pale and dusty in color, while in the heavily forested and brush-grown regions west of the Sierra we have a song sparrow that is very deep brown. Again, as we go up the Pacific coast the bird retains its dark colors as far north as there is heavy vegetation, but keeps getting larger and more robust, until by the time we have reached the island of Kadiak we find a song sparrow dark gray and brown in color, but nearly as large as a chickadee. Kadiak is the last point at which there is any tidewater forestation. Beyond this island we find another resident form of song sparrow, fully the equal of the Kadiak bird in size and robustness, but, being necessarily an inhabitant of the open and shadeless shores of the north land, it is pale gray and brown, instead of the deep colors of its nearest relative. While the actual tones and shades of color differ greatly in the extreme cases of these geographical races, the pattern and general scheme of marking in all are identical.
Perhaps the most remarkable thing about the song sparrow group is the fact that the song in every case is the same sweet-spirited one that we are familiar with in the eastern states. I can hardly describe the feeling that came to the bird lovers of our party as we neared the wharf of the Russian town of Kadiak, to be greeted from the roof tree of the dockhouse by the perfectly familiar melody of our eastern song sparrow.
"Twas Not the Humming Bird.
"Naomi," he said, softly, as he gazed at the moon above them, "isn't the evening beautiful? Do you know, strange fancies throng my mind on an evening like this. Every zephyr seems to bear gentle voices, perhaps from the spirit world. Do you hear such voices?"
Silence for a moment.
"I think I do, George."
"What do they sound like to you?"
"They are very indistinct, but they make me think that papa and brother Henry are calling the dog."—Lon-

JACKSNIPES IN CHICAGO.
Unexpected Sport on the Links of a Swell Golf Club.
Chicago is not only a great city in population, wealth, hogs, beaves and culture, but probably, says the New York Sun, it is the only metropolis in the world which furnishes excellent spring jacksnipe shooting.
Along its busy lake front people have been shooting mallards and teal for years, but not many of its citizens know that within its limits is as fine a bit of snipe ground as any man, professional or amateur, would wish to see. The Illinois law permits snipe shooting until April 26 and up to that day of this year guns were cracking merrily in Riverside, a southern part of the city which has a swell golf club as well as good wing sport.
The snipe began coming in about April 10 and members forsook their caddies and caddy bags. A lot of the population showed up and as the shooting was outside of the club grounds the club members could say nothing.
Trains which run every five minutes in the rush hours took gunners down and guns, and the war was worth looking at.
That part of the city contains a good deal of lowland which in a wet season is a promising marsh, and there is plenty of grass and weeds for cover. There is a long, shallow pond also and birds were plentiful near its edges.
There is a law against discharging firearms within the city limits, unless a policeman is called on to shoot somebody in the leg while trying to destroy a mad dog, but nobody paid any attention to the law and the patrolmen said nothing. Some wounded birds were lost by flying a half mile and dropping upon a business street, where they were picked up by the hurry throngs, but in the main the snipe were retrieved without trouble.
The shooting lasted for more than two weeks and got better as it got older. There were many birds left when the law closed down.
To give an idea of the character of the sport it may be said that scores of from 15 to 30 snipe were often made in a day and one man bagged three dozen. This means that under the most favorable circumstances at least 50 shells were expended, which is a good enough day for anybody.
The birds reached Riverside from the south in fine condition and were made fatter by the rich pickings they found there.
NEW FOOD FOR HENS.
Grasshoppers Are Now Gathered and Pressed Into Bricks.
In many places grasshoppers are being put to a new use. The farmers have killed incredible numbers of them by the help of a machine which is, perhaps, the most effective ever devised for the purpose. It is called a "hopperdozer," and is nothing more nor less than a large flat pan, with a small amount of paraffin contained in a depression in the rear part of it.
The contrivance, being attached to a horse, is pushed along in front of the animal as the latter is driven across the fields. Pretty nearly every grasshopper encountered jumps upon the pan, and is promptly suffocated by the paraffin.
Until quite recently these grasshoppers have been burnt as a means of getting rid of them, but now the farmers have found that as a food for poultry the grasshopper is unbeaten.
The hoppers after being killed are left in burrows in the fields, where they are soon dried. When they have been exposed to the sun for a sufficient time to reduce them to a properly desiccated condition they are gathered up with rakes, shoveled into cars and conveyed to a shed, where they are put into a press somewhat resembling an ordinary cheese press, and converted into solid bricks.
The bricks are shipped in quantities to poultry raisers, who find this new kind of hen provender most satisfactory, and they are anxious to get more of it. Apparently it is a great encourager of egg production.—Lon-

Rapid Boiler-Making.
A modern boiler shop is far different from its cogenitor of half a century ago. It is not generally known that a boiler of 40-horse-power can be made and shipped in about eight hours. That is to say, if an order is put in by seven o'clock it can be on the way to its destination by three o'clock on the same day, ready for steam when set. This boiler will be taken from flat sheets, rolled to dimensions, all rivets driven, tubes set and rolled, and the work made water and steam tight within the time named; but it will be of the returntubular type, where no smith work or flanging is required.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.
STATE OF MISSOURI,
County of Lafayette, Mo.

Missouri, at Lexington, August Term, 1902.
Hetta Otto, Plaintiff, Gustav Otto, Defendant.
Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorney, and files her petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendant Gustav Otto is not a resident of the state of Missouri; Whereupon it is ordered by the clerk in vacation that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and defendant on the grounds that said defendant has offered such indignities to plaintiff as to render her condition intolerable in this, that defendant has at various times cursed and abused plaintiff, threatening to strike plaintiff, and while plaintiff was in a delicate condition defendant abused and cursed her, and has at all times been unkind and neglectful of plaintiff, and that unless the said resident defendant, Gustav Otto, be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at said court, on the 4th day of August, 1902, next, and on or before the 1st day of said term, if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then on or before the last day of said term, answer on oath to the petition in said causing the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.
And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said county of Lafayette for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next August term of this court.

Read down. Read up.

Until quite recently these grasshoppers have been burnt as a means of getting rid of them, but now the farmers have found that as a food for poultry the grasshopper is unbeaten.

The hoppers after being killed are left in burrows in the fields, where they are soon dried. When they have been exposed to the sun for a sufficient time to reduce them to a properly desiccated condition they are gathered up with rakes, shoveled into cars and conveyed to a shed, where they are put into a press somewhat resembling an ordinary cheese press, and converted into solid bricks.

The bricks are shipped in quantities to poultry raisers, who find this new kind of hen provender most satisfactory, and they are anxious to get more of it. Apparently it is a great encouragement of egg production.—London Answers.

Rapid Boiler-Making.

A modern boiler shop is far different from its cogenitor of half a century ago. It is not generally known that a boiler of 40-horse-power can be made and shipped in about eight hours. That is to say, if an order is put in by seven o'clock it can be on the way to its destination by three o'clock on the same day, ready for steam when set. This boiler will be taken from flat sheets, rolled to dimensions, all rivets driven, tubes set and rolled, and the work made water and steam tight within the time named; but it will be of the return-tubular type, where no smith work or flanging is required.
